

Michał Dąbrowski – Software Engineer

- 5 years of experience in building web applications
- Functional programming and testing enthusiast

Education

Polish-Japanese Academy of Information Technology, Warsaw, Poland B.S. in Computer and Information Sciences (specialization in Data Mining), March 2018
Komeda School of Jazz and Contemporary Music, Warsaw, Poland, 2014

Skills, technologies

- High proficiency in Java, JavaScript, TypeScript, SQL
- Strong knowledge of Python, HTML, CSS, AQL
- Rudimentary knowledge of Scala, Clojure, Kotlin
- Spring Boot, Hibernate, React, Gatsby, Angular
- Webpack, Babel, Gradle
- Thorough testing, working in TDD environment
- Docker, Kubernetes, some experience with OpenShift and AWS

Experience

Institute of Applied Linguistics, Warsaw, Poland, May 2016 – November 2016

- worked as researcher's IT support
- created application for quantitative analysis of language used in students' essays

E-point S.A., Warsaw, Poland, April 2017 – May 2020

- worked both in oldschool waterfall projects and agile, scrum ones
- developed internal and external web services for banking industry
- implemented RESTful services in Spring Boot
- implemented frontends in React and Angular, build Progressive Web Apps

Official Polish dubbing of Hanasaku Iroha: Home Sweet Home 2019

- overseen the whole production process as producer
- recorded and produced sound as sound engineer

Baeldung, remote 2020 – present

- wrote tutorial articles about Linux, Java and Spring

Applica S.A., Warsaw, Poland, April 2020 – present

- worked in scrum teams in dynamic startup environment
- implemented application for natural language processing and document classification in microservice architecture
- navigated diverse technology stack: Spring Boot and Temporal on backend, Angular and Vue on frontend, but also some Node and Python services

Languages

- Polish, native
- English, business proficient